METROPOLIS TRAGEDY.

Dr. A. M. Covington Shot and Killed By Marshal "Dump" Oakes.

OFFICER PERHAPS FATALLY SHOT

Dr. Covington Had Been Warned to Drive Away Several Disreputable Women—Shot the Officer in the Back.

GREAT EXCITEMENT OVER THE KILLING

Metropolis, Ill., was the scene of a bloody tragedy last night, as a result of which Dr. A. M. Covington, one of the best known characters in Southern Illinois was shot and killed, and City Marshal "Dump" Oakes, perhaps fatally injured.

A Metropolitan Herald extra issued at 5 o'clock this morning, gives the following account of the killing:

"Last night at 10 o'clock City Marshal W. E. Oakes went to the Covington hotel on Front street and stepping into the bar room said to Dr. A. M. Covington, the proprietor:

"You must get rid of those women. Send them off on the little boat in the morning or I will have to come here and pull the whole push, or words to that effect.

"Scarcely had the words been uttered when the marshal turned to go. As he did so Covington said, 'Got enough of it, eh?' then fired. The ball entered the marshal's back just below the heart and came out the breast, tearing an ugly hole.

"The wounded officer ran out the door wheeled about and in much less time than it takes to tell fired four shots at Covington. Officer McGlasson who accompanied Oakes fired two shots from the office door, having been threatened by Covington's gun. One shot and the fatal one, entered just above Covington's heart and lodged against the shoulder blade; another merely scraped his right hip. The other four shots went wild.

"Marshal Oakes and Officer McGlasson then started walking to the Julian hotel. Just before crossing the alley below the hotel Oakes fell in a faint to the sidewalk and began bleeding profusely. He was carried at once into the hotel and medical aid summoned. Quickly as possible the wound was dressed. The doctors at first looked for the bullet but later found it in one of the officer's socks, where it had fallen after going entirely through the body.

"A cot was secured and the wounded officer was taken at once to his home on Seventh street, where every means known to medical science were resorted to throughout the night to save his life.

"Dr. Covington's body was laid out on a cot in the hotel parlor where it was seen by many soon after the tragedy. At 10:15 Coroner Ragdale took charge of the body and a jury was summoned at once.

"It seems that last evening a number of new women of the so-called variety came to the Covington hotel to stop. Marshal Oakes learned of this and he, with Officer McGlasson went to the hotel to see the doctor and have a talk with him in regard to allowing them to stay there.

"They did not expect trouble, although as usual, were prepared for any emergency. Covington said but little in reply but as Oakes turned to go out fired a shot. The quickness and nerve of the officer was shown when almost mortally wounded he turned and fired four shots at his antagonist.

"The whole affair was so sudden that as Officer McGlasson, who participated says, he could hardly realize what was happening until the fearful tragedy had been enacted.

"It is thought by some that Covington was very much under the influence of liquor. When the Fowler came in he went down to the wharf and was laughing and joking more than usual."

Coroner Ragdale held an inquest, and Marshal Oakes was able to testify, his evidence being in accordance with the above.

The body was viewed and an examination revealed two wounds only upon the deceased. One bullet entered the left breast two and a half inches above the nipple ranged through the body and lodged just beneath the skin about two inches below the right shoulder blade. In its course the bullet passed through the upper half of the heart.

The other wound was on the left hip where a bullet had scraped the skin about six inches. This bullet was found in the left hip pocket.

An examination of the bar room revealed four bullet holes in the wire screen door made from the outside. Two bullets had lodged in the wall directly facing the street door. They were about three feet above the door.

Dr. Covington, the deceased, was about 35 years old, and leaves four children, three sons, and one married daughter. He had for years lived in Metropolis, and kept a dive, and had often been in trouble there as well as here. He often came to Paducah and was well known here.

Marshal W. E. Oakes, better known as "Dump," is about 35 years old, and has been marshal about two months. He was elected to fill the unexpired term of the late Marshal Gus Crouch, who was killed there by Clem Ferguson and Leslie Taylor, two residents of this county, who are now in jail there.

At press time this afternoon Marshal Oakes was reported doing well. The verdict of the coroner's jury was: "We find that he came to his death by a gunshot wound on Monday, June 3, 1901, about 10:15 p. m. Said gun was in hands of W. E. Oakes in the discharge of his official duty as marshal and in self defense and was fully justified."

JOINT MEETING.

WHITE AND COLORED MINISTERS DISCUSS CHURCH WORK.

The white and colored ministers of Paducah met yesterday afternoon and compared notes on the work in their churches. There was reported a great increase in the interest in church work among the colored residents. The services are reported well attended with a steady increase in the work in general. The colored ministers also hold a weekly meeting and discuss their work and by arrangement the white and colored ministers will meet about once every month and compare progress.

SCHOOL BOARD

Tonight Supt. Hatfield Will Recommend an Additional Teacher.

INCREASE IN ATTENDANCE

It Is Proposed to Add a Commercial Course to the High School and Increase the Graduates.

REGULAR BOARD MEETING TONIGHT

There will be no business of especial importance brought before the school board at tonight's meeting. The superintendent's report for the month of May will be read and received. The following is the main substance of the most important items mentioned in the report: There was the usual decrease in the regular enrollment after the carnival. This occurs every year at about this particular time. Orders for the teachers to visit the homes of those pupils who had stopped school were issued and out of the 200 that stopped 100 were regained. The number was greatly reduced in this manner.

The report of the average per cent. of attendance was also made. Last year in the month of May the average white attendance was 78 1-2 per cent. and the colored 67 1-2 per cent. This year shows a marked increase in the attendance. The average per cent. of attendance for the past month was 85 per cent. white and 76 per cent. colored. The school law regarding vaccination is that every pupil entering school after October shall have a good vaccination scar and the superintendent recommends that the law be changed to the opening day of school so that pupils that have not been vaccinated can be made to do so then and the time and trouble of such an enforcement of the law after the school work has been well started would be done away with. The arrangement would be much better if it is thought and much inconvenience would be prevented. A recommendation for one more teacher in the high school is made. The addition of one more teacher, to teach business or rather to prepare the pupils for a commercial career, would increase the boys' enrollment in the high schools and the graduating class would have more male members. The salary recommended for such a teacher is $75 per month.

The institute idea mentioned to the board heretofore will also be mentioned in the report. The teachers have heretofore met, before the taking up of school on the first day and compared notes or rather hurriedly reviewed the course of study. Not enough time was placed at the teacher's disposal to properly become acquainted with the work and by allowing the teachers one week's time and by making a law that all the teachers must meet and have drills on the course of study, the schools, as far as the teachers were concerned, would be in a much better condition to go into the work than they have been heretofore. The suggestion for the board to allow the teachers attending this institute, their week's salary, withheld during the Christmas holidays, is also offered. It is thought that the board will make a law in favor of the latter suggestion.

No other business besides the possible steam heat question will be brought before the board.

Just received—One hundred more boxes of Daniel Boone Soap, which are still disposing of at one cent per bar. Jake Biederman Grocery Co.

NOT PLEASED

Some of the Board of Health Are Dissatisfied.

TROUBLE OVER NEW LAW

It Is Thought That the Meat and Milk Inspector Ordinance Is Unconstitutional As It Stands.

MAYOR LANG'S VIEW ON THE SUBJECT

The board of health, judging from the statements of some of the members, are not satisfied with the meat and milk inspector ordinance as it was passed last night by the council.

"They might as well have killed it," said a member this morning, "for as sure as it is passed finally as it now stands, it will be decided unconstitutional by the courts."

"The ordinance requires all beef slaughtered in the city or within one mile of the city to be inspected before it is slaughtered, while beef in adjacent counties may be killed without an inspection and subjected only to an inspection after being brought here dressed and placed on the market. Now if an inspection of this kind will suffice for beef slaughtered in other counties, it will suffice for beef slaughtered in this county, and the courts in our opinion would so decide. The object of the discrimination is of course to get the beef that is brought here from other counties, which stimulates competition and keeps down the price. If it had to be inspected before slaughtered it would have to be driven, or brought here by rail, and inspected, and then taken back, and anyone with common sense knows that a farmer isn't going to this trouble and expense.

"If no inspection is required as stated in the ordinance, it will be legislation discriminating in favor of the outside purveyors of meats, against home people, and if it is, it will drive away from the market a very desirable class of trade, and give the local dealers monopoly."

Mayor Lang was asked about the objectionable clause, and said that the object of it was to permit meats from other counties to be brought here and sold, which would be impossible if it should be required to be inspected as the beef slaughtered in this county.

"If the clause is unconstitutional, it can be stricken out when the council meets again," he said. "The idea was that it would never do to shut out any trade that conduces to competition in any commodity on our market. We want the benefits of meat and milk inspection, but do not want to impair our market."

"Even should one clause be unconstitutional," he continued, "that wouldn't invalidate the remainder of it. The ordinance provides for prosecution under the state laws, which fully cover every point. Another thing, it will never do for any man to be prosecuted under the ordinance, for it would forever ruin his business. Therefore we do not intend to let any violations of the law, and consequently there will likely never be a test of its validity."

OUR COUNTRY'S CREDIT.

The credit of the United States is truly remarkable, and is no greater than any nation on earth. Just as a comparison of the respective national credits. British consols returning their purchasers four and three-fourths per cent. interest the first year, two and three fourths per cent. the second, and two and one-half per cent. annually for twenty years thereafter, have just sold at ninety-four and one-half. United States two per cent. are selling at 108 1/2. German imperial three per cent. have been going in Frankfurt at eighty-six, and French four per cent. in Paris at 101. Russian four per cent. have been offered at par, and United States four per cent. of 1925 have brought 110.
Our national securities offer an assured income, while the British government promises to pay in certain rate of interest and then retains what she chooses in the name of an income tax. This year it is six per cent—next year it may be eight, ten or even half.

While statistics show that this government's national debt is $2,000,000, which would be small compared to some of the national debts, this amount is too much for our national debt is really less than $1,000,000,000, the remainder being made up of non-interest-bearing bonds and certificates of deposit, for which we hold practically dollar for dollar in the treasury.
The bonded debt of Great Britain was about three billion two hundred million dollars a year ago, and is over three billion five hundred million dollars now. The debt of France is about six billions, and that of Russia over three billion five hundred millions. The other European nations are proportionately loaded; yet the United States could easily afford to carry a heavier debt than any of them.

If we manage our affairs with reasonable prudence, thinks the Philadelphia Post, we shall be substantially out of debt within ten years. Then we shall present the annoying spectacle of a nation with perfect credit and no need for it, while the countries that want the credit will not have it.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland has an able article in the last issue of the Philadelphia Post, on "The Waste of Public Money." He calls attention to the prevailing evil of prodigal expenditures in every government, municipal, state and national, and among other things says: "The fact that the expenditures of our government are constantly growing and that increased waste and extravagance closely follow in their train, seems to cause but little shock even to those of our countrymen who are disinterestedly patriotic and thoughtful. This strange condition can only be explained by the over-weening and arrogant confidence in our strength and resources that characterizes us as a nation, in connection with the indirect and almost stealthy manner in which taxes for the support of the general government are exacted from the people. When a congress during its two sessions appropriated a billion dollars it was justly asserted that one was a billion-dollar country and the appropriation of nearly a billion and a half dollars during the life of the congress just closed does not appear seriously to challenge attention.
"Our national strength is indeed prodigious, and our resources appear beyond the reach of misfortune. And yet where in reason or history do we find a warrant of security against the natural and unrelenting penalties of reckless waste and extravagance.
The strong and vigorous men who are heedless of danger and exposure often fall victims to their rashness, and are outlived by their weaker fellows, upon whom the laws of life and health have enjoined caution and self-care. With all our boasted strength and resources there must be somewhere a limit of safety in our prodigality."

The police record for the recent reunion at Memphis shows that there were 340 arrests and only $100 worth of goods reported stolen. The extra police service cost $1,500.

The Chinese will get possession of their government gradually, the troops withdrawing a few at a time. The Germans are now on the move. They have immense quantities of baggage, most of which formerly belonged to the Chinese, but which they of course purchased from the obliging Celestials.

The British farwell to remaining American officers was most cordial, as was that of the appreciative Americans to the departing British.

Kansas continues to furnish mismanagement for the civilized world. Thirteen men near Wichita have negotiated an "anti-killing" club. Although unarmed, they have solemnly pledged themselves not to kill their wives.
The worst feat they could have received is that their wives haven't offered the slightest protest. In fact the new club seems to be just what they have long wanted.

FIRE ENGINE IN SHAPE.

to be given in exchange for the new aerial ladder and truck, is being put in shape, and will be ready to ship tomorrow.

$100 REWARD.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being in constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

ville, arrived this morning and departed on return trip at 10 a. m. with good paying trips down and return.

light tomorrow morning from Clarksville.

arrival and leaves at noon tomorrow for Nashville.

There is about a week's work to do off the ways.

The Charlotte is receiving a big trip of freight for her departure at 5 p. m. today for the Tennessee river country. She also has some eighteen or twenty passengers booked for various points up that stream.

Business was fairly good today in river circles. Weather lovely and the river cool happy as a clam. Blackberry and watermelon time is not far off so it "cuts no ice" with Mr. Owen, whether corn is worth 15 cents or $2 a bushel.

The Dick Fowler made her escape for Cairo this morning promptly at 8:15. She had a splendid packet trip.

Mr. David Mantz, widely known as one of the best fellows in the world left today for Creal Springs. Dave was in complete disguise as he was dressed in a full suit of broad cloth topped off with a Panama hat and a handsome walking cane. He didn't look as though he had ever had anything to do with a pair of steamboat engines.

cent attack of malaria.

from Evansville. Captain Billy has been doing the "circular work" on her. He got off here and Captain Austin Owen shipped on the Barham for Tennessee river.

Healthy Old People

say the main thing to do is to keep the stomach, liver and bowels in order if you want to keep well and live long. Good physicians say the same thing, too. The remedy called while not mysterious or miraculous in its curative qualities, is a simple formula prescribed by the best physicians for disorders of the digestive organs. Just little Tabules, easy to take, easy to buy and quick to act. If your trouble is Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Heartburn, and the like, no need of calling a physician. Ripans Tabules contain exactly what he would tell you to take. Permanent cure follows a fair trial. No uncertainty about it.

ONE GIVES RELIEF.

There is general agreement of all health that it is not beneficial by the use of a laxative. It is a fact that the bowels are not in order if you want to keep well and live long. Good physicians say the same thing, too. The remedy called

The First Thing the Doctor Does

No matter what your trouble is—be it to get your bowels working properly, and prescribe some sort of laxative; and be it right. About every disease you can think of, except the ones when it is clogged up—full of poison, caused by constipation. Keep disease out by keeping constipation out. "Laxative does it."

Laxative, the great tonic laxative, keeps the bowels open and regular, strengthens the mucous membrane of the stomach and acts directly upon the liver and kidneys, keeping them active and strong, the blood is purified, every organ and function of the body is strengthened, nervousness disappears and you feel invigorated and toned up.

For tired, worn out, faded women, whose systems are run down, blood thin, faces drawn and haggard, and that general "all gone" feeling, Laxative is the best medicine.
